

Behavioral Health Data Exchange Consortium

Julia F. Costich, JD, PhD
Univ. of Kentucky College of Public Health

Adapted from presentation by
Cindy Throop, RTI, Project Manager
Nagesh (Dragon) Bashyam, Lead Technology SME

Behavioral Health Data Exchange Consortium: Participants

- Alabama
- Florida
- Kentucky!
- Michigan
- Nebraska
- New Mexico
- Representatives of
 - the ONC,
 - Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration,
 - the Legal Action Center,
 - subject matter technical experts on the NwHIN Direct protocols

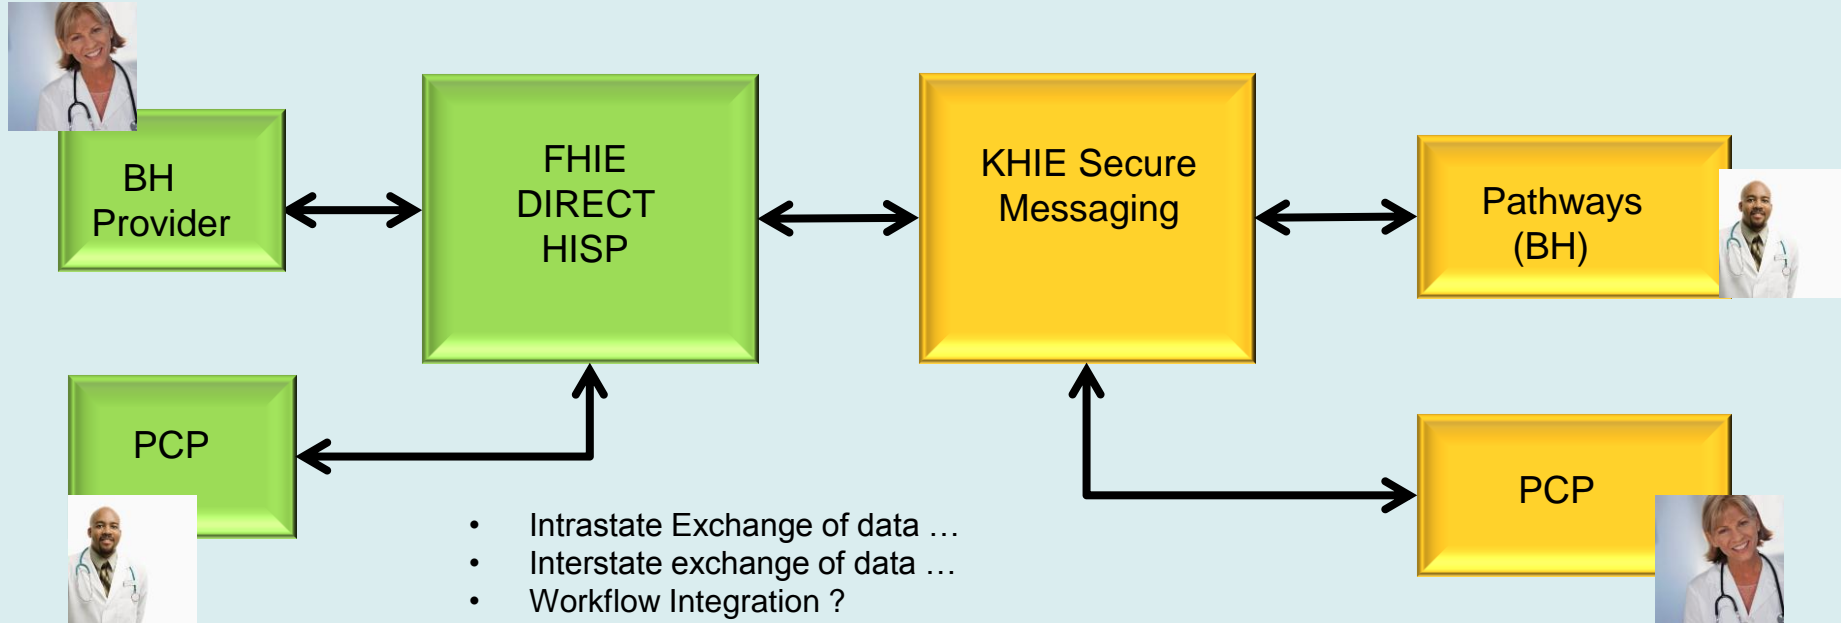

Behavioral Health Data Exchange Consortium: Purpose

- Pilot the interstate exchange of behavioral health treatment records among treating health care providers using Nationwide Health Information Direct protocols
- Draft policies and procedures for Direct exchange of behavioral health treatment records
- Focus on meeting the requirements of federal regulations (42 CFR Part 2) and mental health laws of consortium states

Behavioral Health Data Exchange Consortium: Products

- Recommended policies and procedures for the interstate exchange of behavioral health data
- Documentation of decision trees for policies and procedures
- Example authorization/consent forms
- Process workflows for common interstate use cases
- Evaluation of pilot experiences including stakeholder feedback
- Final report

Behavioral Health Data Pilot Concept

- Intrastate Exchange of data ...
- Interstate exchange of data ...
- Workflow Integration ?
- Provider / PCP Infrastructure ?
- Data to be exchanged ?
- Consent Management ?
- Common Patients ?